

Julie Soucy

Julie is a friendly, outgoing young woman with a delightful sense of humor and immense energy. She is discerning and curious, intelligent and thoughtful. Her communication skills are excellent: she is a natural teacher.

Julie has owned and successfully trained many dogs, and is perceptive in her understanding of each animal's needs, issues, and abilities. She "speaks dog" well. Julie approaches training sessions with games, fun, positive reinforcement, and a "You can do it!" attitude. She is good at setting goals, then breaking them down into small, attainable segments. The results are rapid, as with any good trainer. Dogs, whether her own or others, enjoy working for or directly with her.

Julie is equally adept at translating what to do and how best to do it for the handler/owner. She has studied and understands the various "systems" or "methods" of training, and applies what works best for each team. She has gained experience from seminars, lessons, DVDs, and books with and by international competitors including Daisy Peel, Anna Eifert, Mary Ellen Barry, and Linda Mecklenburg.

Julie is passionate about sharing what she has learned on her own journey with her dogs. For her there is no better feeling than watching a dog and handler "get it."
